Spiritual Practices

1. Breath Prayer (Sacred Pauses)

Breathe in slowly...Holy Spirit.... Breathe out...Awaken my sense of awe

Why it helps: Slows us down and attunes us to the Spirit's presence in the present moment—where wonder often hides.

2. Nature Walks (Creation Wonder Walks)

Take a slow walk with the sole intention of observing the details of God's creation—colors, sounds, textures, patterns.

Why it helps: Engaging our senses with the beauty of creation reconnects us with the Creator and evokes childlike awe.

3. Lectio Divina (Sacred Reading) with Wonder Focus

Choose a short passage (like Acts 2 or Psalm 8). Read it slowly 3–4 times, asking each time, "What is stirring awe in me here?"

Why it helps: Opens our hearts to the mystery of God's Word—not just for knowledge but encounter.

4. Wonder Journal

Keep a small notebook where you jot down moments of surprise, beauty, or mystery. Title it: Today I Was Amazed By...

Why it helps: Encourages a daily posture of attention and helps us track how the Spirit whispers awe into our lives.

A Season of Activity and Opportunity

As we enter the summer months where routines shift and travel increases, we want to gently remind everyone of the importance of your consistent financial support. ·us to continue serving our community without interruption.

With construction navigation making it a bit more difficult to get to worship, May brought a slight shortfall in giving. As a congregation we remain deeply grateful for the ongoing generosity of our community and want to thank you for your continued commitment!

Let's move into summer with hearts full of faith and a spirit of generosity.

May budget: 153,754 May Actual: 149,441 May Shortfall: $4,313

While it may not seem like much in terms of our overall budget, these dips can add up overtime and impact our ability to respond to ministry needs.

June Financial Goal: $226,379 - This is quite a hefty goal for June, yet this is mid-year when another distribution can be taken for those that have IRAs/QCDs. This is what pushed this level up last year along with regular giving.

With your help, we can meet and exceed this month's goal and keep our mission strong throughout the summer months.

One meaningful way to bring your heart for the church to life is by setting up a recurring gift, turning your intent into an ongoing impact.
